The following procedures will be used to determine meaning of grades from the following grading system:

- 1) The Principals and/or Executive Director (or designees) will explore and analyze a common grading symbols to be used for each building. (i.e. Cesar Chavez Academy or Dolores Huerta Preparatory High)
- 2) Once determined, the grading symbols will be reviewed by stakeholders within the school (students, parents, teachers, administrators...etc.) to ensure understanding and provide feedback.
- 3) The grading symbols will then be reviewed by the Board of Directors for approval and implementation into both academies.
- 4) Teachers and students will be provided training to ensure understanding of the grading criteria and the expectations to achieve each symbol.
