The following procedures will be followed in order for students to receive “credit as exam” as part of Chávez/Huerta Preparatory Academy (CHPA) graduation credits:

- 1) A student may go to any accredited college or university and enroll in any College Level Examination Program administered by the school.
- 2) Once an exam is completed and credit is given by the college or university, that credit may be transferred to Dolores Huerta Preparatory High for high school credit equivalency.
- 3) Transferable college credit must align with the policies set forth by Chávez/Huerta K-12 Preparatory Academy regarding college transferrable credit.
