Chavez/Huerta K-12 Preparatory Academy (CHPA) employees are guided by principles that call for the respect of students, parents, citizens, state policy makers, and the educational community at large. This Code of Ethics/Conduct demonstrates to the public that our educational community has a vested interest in advancing the reputation and goodwill of CHPA and K-12 education.

Employees of CHPA will:

- Act with integrity at all times and be accountable for their actions.
- Abide by the CHPA Code of Ethics/Conduct and adhere to its principles.
- Abide by CHPA's procedures and adopted policies.
- Conduct themselves in a manner that is consistent with applicable laws, regulations, and codes.
- Be aware that if an employee's behavior interferes with the orderly, safe and efficient operations of CHPA, disciplinary measures will be taken.
- Be familiar with CHPA Administrative Procedure (AP) 5090, which is aligned with this BP 5090 Employee Code of Ethics/Conduct.
